A GRAND FEATURE
Of Hood's Sarsaparlike is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the velus full of richness and health, it also imparts now life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heart "Hood's Sarsapurilia made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now. Colt's revolvers and 60 cutlasses. Report on Indian Affairs.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3. Commissioner of Indian Affairs Browning has submitted his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior. The commissioner says the year was unmarked by any outbreak or disturbance of any kind among the Indians. He states that the appropriation for this year's work is only $668,240 more than the last fiscal year inotwithstanding the fact that the aggregate of the expenses to be met this year in the that of last year by $2,830,245.

The total enrollment of Indian pupils for the year was $1,551, an average attendance of 17,096. The commissioner says no Indian children are forced to attend schools away from their reservation homes and this policy had the effect of increasing the attendance. "There are no more vicious fighters in the whole animal kingdom than the mountain lions of the northwest," said Major Jackson of Spokane "They combine the ounsing and agility of the eat tribe with the strength of the lion and the ferceity of the tiger. "I have never been much of a hunter, but a few years ago I had an adventure with mountain lions out in Washington that gave me enough of hunting big game for all time. I had captured some young deer, elk and forces and started a small menagerie on my ranch. "One day I was out in the hills looking at some timber, and near a mouth of a small cave in the rocks I found a young lion crawling about on the ground and withing like a kitten. It was only a few weeks old, and I devided to take it home and add it to my menagerie. I judged that there was a nest of the tyroning animals somewhere among the rocks and that tills one had ventured out and got lost while the old once were away. I had no trouble in catching it, and he was too young to show flight. But as soon as I took it up in my arms it ket up a dreadful screeching try, a sort of cross between the wait of a frightened baby and the bark of a small dog Fearing, that the cries would bring the old lions home.

CHIROGRAPHY AND CHARACTER

The Secretary of the Navy Has Powers Which Campbe He Gainsaid.

"There is one map in the United States who has more power than the president and all the federal courts combined," said a mayl officer recently "The secretary of the navy is authorntia. He power over officers of the may is authorntia. He can, without the said of a court, fine an officer all the value of a court, fine an officer all the way from $400 to $4,000 a year, no paid a uniform and fixed compensation. In the army, officers in the navy are not paid a uniform and fixed compensation. In the army the salery of an officer is fixed by law and no one, not even the president, and deduct a cent from that pay without the sentence of a court martial. In the ense of rear admiral, which is the highest mank it in the navy the pay at sea is $6,000. On shooth duty this is reduced to $4,000.

Now suppose a rear admiral is ordered to the command of the fleet in the north Atlantic. They secretary of the navy therepay are not posses to tablit the fleet. He is recived on board the Bayship with all the homors dutin that station and the admiral does his best in the way of entertainment. Suppose again, when the jeccretary of the navy proposes to tablit the fleet. He is not have the proposes to tablit the fleet.
